

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST MUTUAL SUPPORT GROUPS

LifeWell™ invites expressions of interest from person/s interested in the formation of a Mutual Support Group to operate within the service scope of LifeWell.

If you are facing some significant life challenge / crisis and would benefit from meeting with others in like circumstances for purposes of support, sharing, encouragement, care, and discovery, then a mutual support group may be a helpful way forward towards better coping, and generally living life well.

Please detail below the area of mutual support you would be involved in:

Do you have others who would join you for such mutual support ?

Do you have someone who has the capacity and availability to facilitate such a group ?

If yes – Who ? _____

Their contact details..

Please note that LifeWell™ can assist you in the process of finding a suitable facilitator for your group and will assess and approve those proposed to facilitate.

Please indicate your name & contact number below and return the EBC office.

LifeWell™ will make contact with you to explore this opportunity further.

Thank you for your interest
